

Defining/Conceptualizing Social Movements

How, in your mind, do you define a social movement?

How does protest fit into your understanding of social movements? Violence?

How is politics related or unrelated?

Have you ever participated in a social movement?

In your mind, do social movements have impacts/consequences? If so (or not), why (why not)? If so, on what?